

BRAMARE

Luján de Cuyo Appellation

---

MALBEC

---

VINTAGE 2011

---

91 pts

---

“displays a serious nose of ripe fruit. The palate is fresher and more vibrant compared with its sibling from Uco despite being a full-bodied Malbec. The flavors gravitate more toward the black fruit, with spicy notes and dark chocolate hints. It has good complexity and a slightly warm finish, which also gives it good length.

Drink 2014-2021.” – L.G.

